Comments/Notes

Students from all academic majors can pursue graduation with Fishback Honors College distinction. View the Honors program requirements.

As part of the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, students in this program must complete

- a minimum of 33 upper division credits (300-400 level courses),
- a capstone course in their major,
- a designated diversity, equity, and inclusion course ±AHSS 111 (or AIS 211 for teaching specializations students only),
- a minor, second major, or teaching specialization, and
- 10 + credits in Natural Sciences including two lab science courses and courses in at least two prefixes.

Students interested in the Interdisciplinary Studies major must have a goal-based plan of study approved by the end of their first semester in the program. The plan must include 50% upper division credits. Prior credit may apply.

Testing into a higher-level language course may reduce time to graduation. To begin coursework above the 101 level, take the free modern language placement test at https://www.sdstate.edu/modern-languages-global-studies/mfl-placement-information Students with any modern language experience are strongly encouraged to complete the placement test.
