department is unable to redesign the program to allow for efficient, sustainable, and high-quality delivery.

The Sociology (M.S.) - Community Development Specialization will remain active and continue to be offered through the GPIDEA consortium.

B. If there are current students in the program, what are the implications of placing the program on inactive status?

Admission to this program will be immediately suspended, so there will be no first year class effective fall 2020. Returning students will be advised to complete any remaining coursework during the 2020-
