6. How will the university provide student services comparable to those available for students on the main campus?

Students engaged in the A.S. in Agricultural Science in Pierre will have access to various support services throughout the academic program. Students will work with an academic advisor on the main campus. Students will also have access to the support staff and services available through Continuing and Distance Education at SDSU, and Capital City Campus staff will also be available to assist students with onsite needs.

The Office of Continuing and Distance Education (CDE) provides support to new online and distance learners through a dedicated onboarding process, Orientation for Online Learners, and Virtual Move-In Day. CDE staff also provides ongoing support through enrollment and student success coordinators that are available to assist students in connecting to necessary resources online and on campus, through the SDSU Virtual Student Union, student success videos, online tutoring support through Tutor.com. Additional student services such as disability services accommodations will be available to students upon request.

The South Dakota State University Hilton M. Briggs library has long served students engaged in coursework away from campus. This includes students enrolled at off-campus centers and online. Library support services will be available to students through a variety of means:
