

Institutional Sponsorship and Advertising for Gaming and Alcoholic Beverages Review and Routing Form

All sponsorship and advertising proposals for gaming and alcoholic beverage companies are subject to the _____, the SDBOR and SDSU and state of South Dakota rules, regulations, policies, and applicable approved contract terms. The University reserves the right to accept or reject any proposals, in whole or in part, and failure to abide by or agree to the University required terms will result in proposal rejection at any time in the process. Upon proposal approval, complete execution of a contract with SDSU approved terms is required before sponsorship and advertising may begin.
